Let's Start!

What do you like to do for fun? Do you play sports? Do you watch TV?

Learning Outcome

Accurately use basic information in simple situations.

Ask your partner:

- What do you like to do in your free time?
- What hobbies do you have?

Can Do Statements

- I can ask and talk about likes and dislikes.
- I can talk about daily activities and routines.
- I can talk about hobbies, sports and activities.

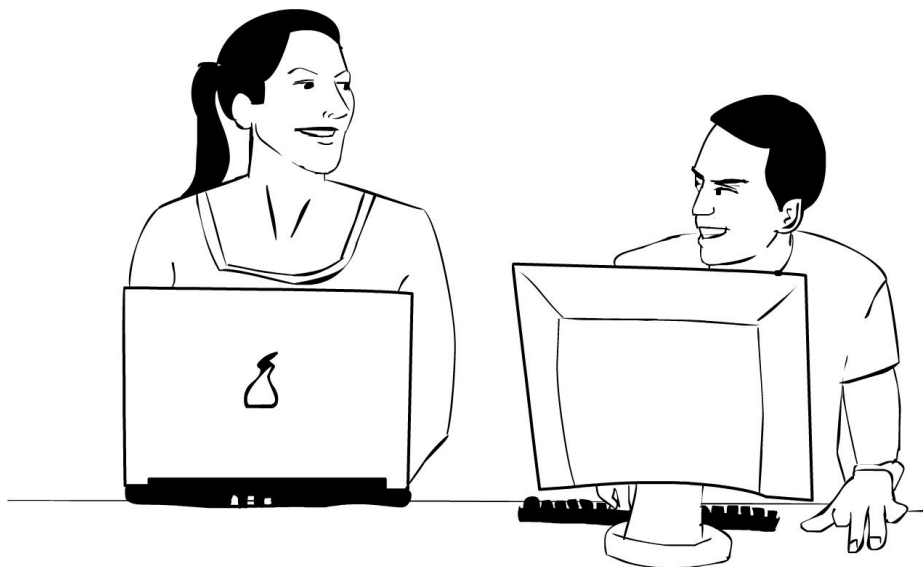

Let's Explore!

Paul talks about his girlfriend's hobbies. What does she like to do or play? Soccer*? Let's find out!

* To "play" is used for most sports and for musical instruments.

Example: I like to play soccer.

 "Soccer" is the American English term for football.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Beth: Paul, tell me about your girlfriend. What does she usually do?

Paul: Well, her name is Janet. She often plays video games. She loves video games.

Beth: OK ... and what else? What are her other hobbies?

Paul: She likes playing soccer. She's very good.

Beth: Really?

Paul: Yeah, but sometimes she doesn't like playing in cold weather.

Beth: I understand. I hate playing football when it's cold!

Paul: I don't really like sports. I don't like running. I prefer playing guitar and cooking.

Beth: Hmmm ... Does Janet like eating your food and listening to your music?

Paul: Yes, of course!

Let's Practice!

Time to practice speaking! Talk about what you like doing!

Instructions: Read the dialogue and write in the missing words. Use like, plays, loves, running. Say your answer out loud.

Learning Points

Talking About Likes and Dislikes

When you want to know what people like, you ask What do you like? or Do you like ... ?

When you want to know what people like to do, you can use the -ing form of the verb.

Here are some ways to talk about likes and dislikes:

Like	Dislike
I love ... ++++	I hate ... ----
I really like ... +++	I really don't like ... ---
I like ... ++	I don't like ... --
I don't mind ... +	I don't really like ... -

Examples:

- I love soccer. I love playing soccer. I love to play soccer.
- I hate soccer. I hate playing soccer. I hate to play soccer.

Wh- Questions

You use Wh- questions when you want information.

Who	asks about a person
What	asks about a thing
Where	asks about a place
When	asks about a time

Examples:

- Who is at the door?
- What is on the table?
- Where do you live?
- When do you leave for work?
