Let's Start!

There is so much to do in one day! How many things do you do?

Mon Tue Wed Thu Fri Sat Sun

Learning Outcome

Express information about daily or weekly routine in a very simple way.

Ask your partner:

- What is your day like?
- What time do you get up?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about the times of the day.
- I can talk about daily activities.
- I can ask and say what people do every day.
- I can express time using in, on, at.

Let's Explore!

Lisa and Julie talk about what they do every day. What time do they get up? What do they do on Saturdays? Let's find out!

* on Saturday → this Saturday

"on Saturdays" → every Saturday

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Julie: I'm so tired.
Lisa: Why are you tired?
Julie: I get up at 6:00 a.m. every day. I get up at 5:00 a.m. in the winter months.
Lisa: That's early!
Julie: I take the 7 o'clock bus to work.
Lisa: I drive to work. It takes so long!
Julie: I check my e-mail and read the newspaper on the bus.
Lisa: Do you work part-time?
Julie: No, I spend the day at work in meetings. I work full-time. I take night classes.
Lisa: When do you clean the house? On Saturdays?
Julie: I have no time to clean my house. It's a mess!

Let's Practice

I take the bus. Time to practice speaking!

Instructions: Draw a line from the first part of the statement on the left to the second part on the right.

Learning Points

Talking About Time

This is how you talk about when things happen.

	Question	Answer	Example
Time of the day	What time is it?	It's ... It is ...	It's 7 a.m. It is 7 o'clock.
Time of daily activities	What time do you get up?	I get up at ...	I get up at 7:15 a.m. I get up at quarter past seven.

NOTE:

7:15 = Quarter past seven

6:45 = Quarter to seven

Examples:

- It is 3:30 p.m.
- It is half past three.

Prepositions of Time

You use prepositions of time to talk about time.

You use at, in, on before days, months, years and other time words.

Preposition	Use	Example
at	times of the day	I get up at 7 a.m.
in	parts of the day, months, seasons	I study in the morning. I travel in April. I work in the summer. on	dates, days of the week	I work on July 5th. I clean the house on Saturdays.
