Let's Start!

Where do you work? What's your typical day? Let's find out!

Learning Outcome

Express information about daily or weekly routine in a very simple way.

Ask your partner:

- What do you do?
- What does your mother do?
- What does your father do?

Can Do Statements

- I can ask people what they do.
- I can use action words.
- I can ask questions about daily routines.

Let's Explore!

Cynthia and Joe talk about their mom and dad. What do they do*?

* To talk about our father, we can say "dad" or daddy. To talk about our mother, we can say "mom" or mommy.

 "Do" refers to a job or occupation.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Cynthia: What does your father do, Joe?
Joe: He's a manager for a computer company.
Cynthia: That job sounds interesting. What's his typical day?
Joe: He drives to the office, and eats breakfast in the car. He spends the day in meetings.
Cynthia: Does your mother work?
Joe: No, my mom doesn't work.
Cynthia: What's her typical day?
Joe: She wakes up, makes breakfast and lunches. She takes care of my little brother and sister at home.
Cynthia: That's a lot of work!
Joe: Yes it is, but she plays tennis on weekends. What do your parents do?
Cynthia: My father works in a dental office.
Joe: Is he a dentist?
Cynthia: Yes. My mother is a school principal.

Let's Practice!

Did you understand the dialogue? Let's find out!

Instructions: Use the words from the word bank to correctly complete the sentences.
