Let's Start!

How often do you ... ? Let's talk about daily activities!

Learning Outcome

Express information about daily or weekly routines in a very simple way.

Ask your partner:

- What activities do you do every day?
- What activities do you do on the weekend?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about how frequently activities happen.
- I can say times of the day like 9 a.m.
- I can talk about daily activities like exercise.

Let's Explore!

How often do Pete and Jennifer exercise? When do they exercise? In the a.m. or p.m.?

* "a.m." is before noon and p.m. is after noon.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Pete: What time is it, Jennifer?
Jennifer: It's half past three. Why?
Pete: I have to go to the library. I have to return a book before 5 p.m.
Jennifer: I usually go to the library in the morning. It's very quiet at 9 a.m.
Pete: I have a class at 9. It ends at 12. I never have time to go when it's quiet.
Jennifer: Next time I can return your books if you want.
Pete: It's OK. I have time now. My yoga class starts at quarter past four.
Jennifer: How often do you go to yoga?
Pete: I always go on Tuesdays, and usually on Thursdays.
Jennifer: Wow ... I rarely exercise.
Pete: Come with me! It's very good for you.
