Let's Start!

Sometimes people are early or late. What about you?

Learning Outcome

Express information about daily or weekly routine in a very simple way.

Ask your partner:

- Are you usually on time?
- When are you early for things?
- When are you late for things?

Can Do Statements

- I can discuss daily routines.
- I can express time using before.
- I can use the words early, late and on time.

Let's Explore!

Jeff and Isabelle talk about who gets to work early and who is late for work. Find out who it is!

* To "get to" means to arrive. To get up means to leave your bed in the morning. To get home means to return to the place you live.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Jeff: I need to change my daily routine.
Isabelle: What's your routine?
Jeff: I get up around 8:00 a.m. I never arrive to work on time. I'm always late.
Isabelle: That's not good. I always arrive 15 minutes early.
Jeff: I usually get to the office after 10:00 a.m.
Isabelle: I get to work before 9:00 every day.
Jeff: I usually take a coffee break around 11:00 to eat something. I'm so hungry!
Isabelle: What time is your lunch hour?
Jeff: From 1:00 to 2:00. Then I get home around 3:00.
Isabelle: Yes, I think you need to change your routine!

Let's Practice!

Did you understand the dialogue? Let's find out!

Instructions: Match the object on the left with its partner on the right to make a correct pair.

- | | |
|---------------------------|-----------------------|
| 1 Jeff gets up | A. around 8:00. |
| 2 He gets to the office | B. from 1:00 to 2:00. |
| 3 He takes a coffee break | C. around 3:00. |
| 4 Lunch hour is | D. after 10:00. |
| 5 He gets home | E. around 11:00. |

Let's Practice!

Let's practice words about time.

Instructions: Complete the sentences with the correct words. Use to, late, time, early, before.

I get to work at 9:00. I am on _____ .

Jeff arrives at work at 10:00. He is _____ . Everyone comes at 9:00.

Isabelle gets to work at 8:30. She is _____ . Everyone else comes at 9:00.

Target Words

- early (adverb): before a specific time
e.g. I take the 7 a.m. bus because I like to get to the office early.
- late (adverb): after a specific time
e.g. My bus usually leaves late, so I get to work after 10 a.m.
- on time (adverb): at a specific time
e.g. I get to the office on time every morning, at exactly 9 a.m.
- before (preposition): at a time earlier than a specific time
e.g. I like to arrive early at the office, so I get up before 7 a.m.
- after (preposition): at a time later than a specific time
e.g. I get home after 6 p.m. because there is always a lot of traffic.
- around (preposition): close to a specific time
e.g. I usually get to the office on time, around 9 a.m.
- to get to (verb): to arrive
e.g. What time do you get to the office in the morning?
- coffee break (noun): a short rest from work
e.g. I like to take a coffee break after 10:00 a.m.

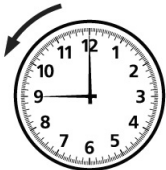

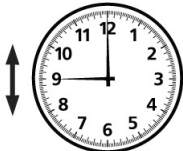

Learning Points

Talking About Time

You use the words before and after to talk about the order of events.

You use the word around to talk about when something happens in a non-specific way.

You use from ... to to talk about when an event starts and ends.

before		I get to work before 9:00 every day.
after		I usually get to the office after 9:00 a.m. around		I take the bus around 9 a.m.
from ... to		Every morning I drive from 9 to 10.

Example Dialogue:

John: I get to work before 9:00 every day.

Theresa: I usually get to the office after 10:00 a.m.

Nancy: We arrive around 9:00.

Ted: Lunch break is from 1:00 to 2:00 every day.
